Band Concert To Open Tag Day Saturday To Raise Cancer Funds

A lively band concert by a 30-piece band, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, will signal the start of a city-wide tag day as Arlington goes all out in support of a 'Jimmy Day' to raise funds with which to fight cancer.

The selectmen having voted last week to hold a 'Jimmy Day', an active committee was busy all week making arrangements for what should prove one of the most successful fund-raising efforts on record.

The band concert will be staged near the old firehouse, 30 members of the Boston Musicians' Union donating their services.

A member of the Boston Braves ball team will be present and will raise money through autographed baseballs and tickets to the Braves' home games.

Meanwhile, Boy Scouts will circulate through the major shopping areas selling tags, and there will be donation boxes in theatre lobbies and elsewhere.

Some local organizations, it is announced, have already contributed to the drive and others are expected to, but the main reliance of the committee in charge is upon the results of the tag day.

Next Tuesday at 6:15, at Spy Pond field, the DAV team will play the Greater Boston All-Stars in a charity game, the proceeds also going to the 'Jimmy' fund. The DVA's are managed by Frank Corbett and are in second place in the 'Paul Revere League'.

Among those playing with the All-Stars will be Art Johnson, local former Braves pitcher; Pat Egan and Fernie Flaman of the Boston Bruins, Eddie Barry of the Olympics; Joe Cunnane, star of Holy Cross, Ike Bevins of B. U.

Donate $25 To 'Jimmy'

Vets' Homes Would Cost Town Nothing, Hearing Is Told; Vote On Housing Authority Slated Monday

Paving the way for creation of a Housing Authority next Monday to launch the construction of veterans' homes, a public hearing held Tuesday night by the town finance committee brought out:

1. That the need of housing accommodations is unquestionable and, in many cases, desperate; and that it is a duty of the community to meet the need—now that it can with state aid.

2. That, under the Sears Act, Arlington may build up to $1,800,000 of housing without cost to the town or to the taxpayers.

3. That, with tax exemptions on the property and other advantages not available to private builders, apartments may be made available at from $30 to $40 per unit.

4. That the proposed homes would be of permanent construction, comparable to existing homes; designs would be subject to the town's approval.

While not more than 100, including some 20 town meeting members, turned out for the hearing, many pertinent questions were voiced by veterans' representatives and by property owners.

The question of where the new homes would be placed was asked of Havey C. Abbott, chairman of the town planning board, but while he disclosed that surveys already have been made, he said:

"It is too early to discuss sites, we can't decide sites till it has been decided what kind of homes are to be built."

A representative of the State Housing Board, Mr. Robinson, explained the provisions of the Sears Act and told exactly how it would work here.

The first step, he said is to vote to create a local Housing Authority. (A special town meeting has been called for next Monday to take action.)

The Housing Authority, which must have a small appropriation for surveys, then makes plans and, its every move subject to approval by the selectmen, enters into a contract direct with the State Housing Board. The town itself is not

What 'Jimmy' Means?

We could write no better editorial on Arlington's efforts to raise funds to fight cancer in children than to quote the words of the proclamation issued this week by the Board of Selectmen:

"The impact of the name, "JIMMY", has come to symbolize the youth of the nation who are stricken with the dread disease, Cancer, and, particularly in this Commonwealth, those youngsters who are endeavoring to find relief from the suffering at the Children's Hospital in Boston.

"As laymen, we can do very little except to support the efforts of learned medical men in the battle with this enemy of mankind. We can, however, contribute toward making the battle an easier one, and the chances of ultimate success more certain.

"The state-wide drive which is currently being conducted in behalf of the children's Cancer Research Foundation is most worthy of your active participation and we gladly commend this drive to all our townspeople. In Arlington, contribution boxes will be found in the various places of business throughout town and plans have been developed by the local Committee for a Tag Day to be conducted by children of "JIMMY'S" age on Saturday, June 26th, which has been designated by our Board as "JIMMY DAY" in Arlington.

"We hope that all organizations and citizens of Arlington will receive this appeal cordially and give it generous cooperation."

Will Rule Be Changed?

While the school committee has had no public comment to make thus far, we hope that the recent public furor created by the dismissal of two able teachers just because they married will lead to a re-examination and reevaluation of a school rule which robs our school system of some of its best teachers.

It has long been a subject of controversy whether single or married women make the best teachers. As with other debatable matters, an arbitrary rule which permits of no exceptions leads invariably to gross injustices—and to harmful effects on the school system itself.

As for ourselves, we cannot see why teachers should be required to take a vow of celibacy. We cannot imagine a GOOD teacher becoming a POOR teacher merely because she normally and quite properly takes a husband.

If it is a case of the local school board being bound by state law; if the board's hands are tied, the least it should do is to explain its position. And now is a proper time to make such an explanation.

Meters Working Well

Arlington's new parking meters seemed to be working out well, as they went into use Monday. The police wisely contented themselves with merely warning, at the start, those who parked without paying.

For the first time in years, there was parking space for shoppers and for others with business to transact along Mass. Ave., and most of them appeared quite willing to pay a penny for 12 minutes' parking.

The storekeeper, the clerk and the professional man was, of course, out of luck; for no one can run out every hour—on the hour—to pop another nickel in a meter, and even if they did parking is legally limited to an hour.

So business men had to find parking space somewhere off the avenue, and this sometimes meant that they had to park some distance from their places of business. But the meters were achieving their primary purpose: to limit parking to one hour, and mainly to shoppers.

If business men who own cars are being inconvenienced they stand to gain in volume of business—and their own parking problem should be lessened when the projected municipal parking lot is opened at Mass. Ave. and Mystic St.

About Town With Muriel

BY MURIEL MacDONALD MURPHY

At a beautiful candlelight service, Roberta Arlene Richardson became the bride of William Henry Bertolet 3rd, of Philadelphia. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Richardson of 14 Venner Road.

The ceremony took place at the Pleasant St. Congregational Church with Rev. David G. Colwell officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with woodwardia ferns, urns of white lillies, and candelabra wound with smilax lining the aisle. The bride was gown in white slipper satin with a redingote type skirt and full train with inserts of rosepoint lace. She wore a full length illusion veil attached to a satin brim edged with similar rosepoint lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of Euuharis lilies, stephanotis, and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Claire Elaine Richardson, as maid of honor and four bridesmaids; a cousin, Mrs. Virginia Hill of Haverhill, Miss Nancy Duncan of Arlington, and the grooms two sisters, Mrs. Esther Hincheliff of Chicago and Miss Mary Jane Bertolet of Philadelphia.

The ushers were fraternity brothers of the groom.

A lovely garden reception followed at the home of the bride. Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Richardson, who have been residents of Arlington for 50 years.

The couple left on a two months trip which was to include a cruise up the Saquenay River in Canada. They will make their home in Enfield, Penn.

The bride is a graduate of Arlington High School and Damon Hall Jr. College. The groom was graduated from M. I. T. the day before the ceremony. He is past president of the M. I. T. chapter of Alpha Tau Omega. He is also former captain in the Army Engineers.

Girl Breaks Leg As Motor Scooter Runs Wild And Hits Auto

Lillian I. Reese, 17, who graduated with honors from Arlington High School two weeks ago, was in Symmes Hospital this week with a broken left leg and multiple abrasions.

Lillian, who's 17, was riding a motorized scooter bike Saturday evening near her home at 46 Rawson Rd., when she was in collision with an automobile.

In starting the bike, it seems, she sideswiped a car parked across the street from her home; then for some unknown reason, the bike couldn't be brought to a stop.

She proceeded along Rawson St., the bike out of control, and as she came to the intersection of Warren

St., an auto reached the same spot at the same time. The resultant crash hurled the girl to the ground with considerable force.

She was taken to Symmes Hospital by her father, John Reese, and Patrolman John Ryan, and the fractured leg was placed in a cast. The auto figuring in the mishap was operated by Joseph P. Mungovan of 35 Adams St., North Chelmsford.

Vaughn Beals of 11 Field Rd., has received his bachelor of science degree in aeronautical engineering from M. I. T., and has accepted a position with Cornell University Aeronautical Research Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.

Beckonerts To Mark Their 50th Wedding

Happily married 50 years and residents of Arlington a quarter century, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Beckonert of 58 Webster St. will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Saturday by attending a mass at Holy Trinity Church, in Boston, where they were married.

Mrs. Beckonert's sister, Mrs. Leo Walker of Dorchester, and Mr. Beckonert's brother, Frank, of Mattapan, who were bridesmaid and best man at the wedding 50 years ago will both attend the anniversary mass.

But there will be present some who did not attend the original ceremony, including Mr. and Mrs. Beckonert's four children: George and Frances, who live at home; Mrs. Rose Figler of Dorchester and Joseph, who will come from his home in Buffalo with his wife and one child.

Following the church service at 10 Mr. and Mrs. Beckonert and their relatives and friends—about 125 in all—will gather for a breakfast at Casino Hall, directly across from the church. Afterward, the happy couple will motor to Buffalo with their son to spend a week there.

Both Mr. Beckonert, who is 74, and his wife, 72, are in excellent health. Mr. Beckonert continues working in the refrigeration field.

'Good Neighbor'

John Anderson, of 82 Thesda St., was named as a 'good neighbor' by Ed Dinsmore, WCOP's "Morning Host", on a recent broadcast of the "Morning Show". Ed picks an outstanding example of civic leadership, from his many letters, and sends his congratulations on his program. Mr. Anderson received a gift box of cigars and the good wishes of station WCOP.

Baby Sitter Gets A Scare; Cops Come Up With Explanation

A young girl who had been left in charge of several children on Lake St., Saturday night, while the mother was visiting in Boston, got quite a scare.

About 10 o'clock some man, a stranger to the girl, tried to gain entrance to the house.

The girl phoned the children's mother—having been given the number where she was visiting—and the woman immediately called police here and asked them to go to the Lake St. address.

But there was really no cause for alarm.

Police investigation disclosed that a neighbor, "slightly inebriated," had become confused on his way home and had tried to get in the wrong house.

Perfect In Attendance

Traffic Lights To Be Installed

Paul C. Griffin, chairman of the Arlington Democratic Town Committee, announced this week he has been informed that traffic lights will be installed this summer on the Alewife Brook Parkway, at the Henderson St., bridge in Arlington and at Woodstock St., in West Somerville.

Mr. Griffin has campaigned for such lights, for the safety of pedestrians, for more than a year. The lights will be in operation, he said, next September when East Arlington children start attending the new Immaculate Conception School.

I Wonder ?

I WONDER how many of the customers at Alice G. Wallace's beauty salon know that she always lends a hand to community movements?

I WONDER if Life Magazine isn't falling down on the job when it fails to use as a 'cover girl' a picture of the sweet young lady now working at the Fabric Shop in Arlington Center?

I WONDER if you know that there are three sets of clock mechanisms in each one of the parking meters, and that they have to be wound up once a week.

I WONDER if the town clerk's department, which couldn't be reached by this paper from 10 a. m. til noon Monday because its phone was busy reads an additional phone connection?

I WONDER who owned the big black dog that lay in the street on Mass. Ave. Monday night without putting a penny in the parking meter?

I WONDER if Frank's isn't one of the most popular spots in North Cambridge since it installed two television sets?

I WONDER if YOUR coins will help to swell the fund to fight cancer, in this Saturday's tag day?

I WONDER if Patrolmen Arthur E. Clare and Philip Sweeney weren't two of the busiest men in town this week, instructing motorists in the use of the parking meters?

I WONDER who was the cute little three-year-old miss who, on seeing the Sears bathroom display, decided to show the shopping public she knew the meaning of "Me Do," to the clerks' shocked but belated "No, no's"?

I WONDER who'll be the first enterprising merchant who'll offer to pay the parking meter charge for anyone shopping in his store?

Appeals For 'Anything With A Roof' For His Family Of 4

Willing to move into "a shed, a garage, anything with four walls and a roof," a town employee appealed to 'the Press this week to help him find living quarters for himself, his wife and two sons.

He explained that he recently lost his home because someone bought it, and that he now has to room out while his family lives with relatives, where three families are packed into a few rooms.

"My wife and little tots are very unhappy," he told the Press. "I would take anything that I could fix up as a home. My oldest boy is seven, the younger one almost three. I am able to pay up to $50 rent."

The Press will be glad to convey any suggestions to this desperate father.

His Father 'Good Sport'

Arthur E. O'Brien, of 101 Thorndike St., wrote a winning letter on "Why My Father Is A Good Sport", and was awarded a gift box of cigars for his father.

Chuck Crosby conducted the letter contest for four days on the "Sports Spotlight" program, that is aired over WCOP every night at 6 p.m. Chuck congratulated O'Brien in his program Wednesday of last week.

The boys, who will learn about good government, are besides Cleary: Richard Ellertown, 48 Lakehill St.; William Berry, 9 Irving St.; John Buckley, 17 Jean Rd. and Leo Clancy, 46 Old Mystic Ave.

'Smallest Blaze On Record'

The fire department was called out Friday on what was probably the smallest blaze on record.

It was just a prank on someone's part, but when smoke filled Jane's Restaurant in Arlington Center, at 11:19 Friday night, an alarm brought several pieces of fire apparatus to the scene.

The smoke was traced to one of the stools at the lunch counter. Some prankish customer, it turned out, had removed the seat, and dropped a cigarette butt into the pipe supporting the seat. This set fire to a bit of dust and dirt—enough of a blaze to create smoke—and alarm the management, though the blaze could have been put out with a glassful of water.

Four-Year-Old Boy Hit-Run Victim Suffers Concussion And Bruises

Policemen Argue For Time Off Or Extra Pay For Holidays

In advance of next Monday's special town meeting, when the matter of time off for policemen who work on holidays will be voted upon, the town finance committee heard a dozen members of the department expound their case Tuesday night.

The policemen were given a brief but sympathetic hearing just before the main hearing on the matter of vets' housing.

Among those appearing were Patrolman Philip Sweeney, Sgts. William Germain and Charles Toomey, Patrolmen William F. White, Walter Smith and Albert Spina.

The policemen are asking either for time off for holidays on which they work, and for time they spend in court, or for pay for these extra hours.

The finance committee was told at the hearing that the police today "have the toughest jobs in town, from a standpoint of hours worked." Several told of spending two and three days a week in court—on their own time.

The men in the department, the committee was told, work 53 more days a year than do town employees who are on a five-day week, and 23 more days a week more than those on a 5½-day week.

Victim of a hit-run driver, four-year-old Alan J. Morrissey of 234 Pleasant St., was picked up unconscious in the streets in front of his home Monday morning and rushed to Symmes Hospital with a brain concussion and other injuries.

At the hospital, the boy remained in a semi-conscious condition until Tuesday, unable to recognize even his own mother. But Tuesday afternoon however, he had rallied and was believed recovering, though he will have to remain in the hospital a week or more.

The lad had gone out to play in front of his home shortly after 9 o'clock Monday morning. His mother looked out, saw him running up and down the sidewalk, but a few minutes later he was lying injured in the street.

No one could be found who had seen the car which ran him down.

"It apparently was a glancing blow," Mrs. Morrissey told the Press, "but I am a driver myself, and I can't see how anyone driving the car could have failed to realize he'd hit someone."

In addition to the brain concussion, young Alan suffered bruises about the head, body and legs. The Morrisseys have a second older son, aged six.

Police Insp. Sullivan Stricken Ill; Changes In Cops' Assignments

Stricken with a heart attack at his home Friday, Police Inspector Edward A. Sullivan is confined to his home at 15 Medford St., but his condition Wednesday was said not to be serious and he is expected to be fully recovered after a period of rest.

Inspector Sullivan is in charge of the police bureau of records, and his absence from duty necessitated new assignments. Lieut. Albert E. Ryan has been placed temporarily in charge of the bureau, of records and traffic, with Patrolman Francis Cook assigned to assist him in the records department.

Other changes in police assignments were made this week, including assignment of Patrolman Charles Scannell to have charge of radio maintenance in addition to his previous duties as coordinator between the police and the Arlington Youth Association.

Sgt. Ferdinand A. Lucarelli has been placed in command of the night platoon, succeeding Sgt. William A. Riley who now commands the traffic maintenance department.

Complains His Farm Is Raided

James Panetta, who operates a farm at the foot of Linwood St., doesn't think it's quite fair for him to work hard raising vegetables and then have someone steal them. He complained to police Tuesday that his farm is being made a target of frequent raids.

'Care Of Sick' Courses By Red Cross

Ten trained nurses will be the instructors for the ten courses in "Care of the Sick" which are scheduled to start under the auspices of the Boston Red Cross July 6th and 7th.

One hundred men and women from Greater Boston will have the opportunity to attend these six-lesson streamlined courses which teach the care of the sick and ways of keeping the family well.

Nine of the courses will be for women but an all men's class has also been scheduled for those men who want to be able to take over for their wives in an emergency. "At least one man or woman in every family should have this training," says Mrs. Katherine O'Neill, director of the Boston Chapter's Home Nursing Service.

Many registrations have been received for these courses, which will be given without charge both in the afternoon and evening, twice a week for three weeks. Several will be held at Red Cross headquarters, 17 Gloucester Street, Boston, and others are being planned for local communities.

"The training you will receive in making a patient comfortable and in carrying out the doctor's orders efficiently will give both you and your patient new confidence," says Mrs. O'Neill.

In addition to teaching and allowing for the practice of such techniques as making a bed with someone in it; taking temperatures and improvising inexpensive bed rests, those enrolled will learn the first aid treatments for such common emergencies as sunburn, poisons, earache and fainting.

To register for one of the classes, each of which is limited to ten persons, contact Mrs. O'Neill at the Home Nursing office of the Boston Chapter of Red Cross at once. The telephone is KENmore 6-6226.

2 Hurt At Playground

Two boys were injured Sunday afternoon at the Reservoir playground.

At 2:48 p. m. the police ambulance was called to the play area and removed Stanton Waite, 14, of 2 Lowell St., Rd., to Symmes Hospital for treatment for a possible fractured shoulder.

Then, at 3:55, Mrs. McCarthy, the matron at the playground, again called for the ambulance—this time to take home a boy with a possible fractured nose. The youth, Lester Quiney, 18, lives in Somerville, so local police took him to the Somerville line, where police of his home town were waiting to complete the trip to the boy's home.

Alarm of Body Found In Woods Fizzes Out

An excited customer walked into "The Duchess," roadside establishment at 21 Summer St., at 9:30 Saturday night and told the proprietor that he'd "just found a body in the woods off Summer Street."

He described the "exact spot," on a path, and when he himself refused to notify the police the proprietor, Mr. Wrnst, called headquarters.
Sgt. William M. German and

Patrolman Charles L. Sewall were sent to scout the neighborhood and spent a considerable length of time searching the woods with flashlights. But if there was any "body" anywhere about, they couldn't find it.

The man who had spread the alarm had meanwhile been lost track of.

Just A Jar Of Jam But It Gets Notice

It was just a jar of jam that slipped out of someone's hands, but it went into oblivion with plenty of notice.

At 1:29 a. m. Sunday Patrolman Walter H. O'Leary made a formal report of an obstruction on the sidewalk at 1061 Mass. Ave.

"Broken jar of jam on sidewalk," read his report.

At headquarters, the report went into the day's official reports.

The next move, also routine, was to notify the town garage, for broken glass on sidewalks is dangerous.

A town employee presumably wrote "finis" to the incident by going to 1061 Mass. Ave., and sweeping up the lost jam.

or engaging in a land assembly and re-development project in accordance with and as provided for in Section 26k of Chapter 121 of the General Laws."

Article 3, in part, reads: "To see if the town will vote to provide for the organization in the town of Arlington a public body, politic and corporate, to be known as "the "Housing Authority in Arlington, Massachusetts."

Bather's Wallet Looted

Robert Carew, 18, of 5 Sutherland Terrace, found a swim at Reservoir Beach rather expensive Sunday.

According to report made to police, the youth's wallet—which he'd left in his clothing on the beach—was rifled and a sum of money taken.

GIRL HIT BY CAR

Lois Lindberg, 14, of 5 Beverly Rd., was painfully but not seriously injured Tuesday afternoon when, while crossing Mass. Ave., opposite No. 675, she was run down by a car operated by John A. Pees of 52 Churchill Ave.

Mr. Pees took her to the office of Dr. Carl E. Barstow for treatment of a laceration of the head, and he then took her home.

Whether or not the town of Arlington will create a Housing Authority and avail itself of state funds with which to construct low-rent homes for veterans will be decided next Monday, June 28, when town meeting members assemble in special meeting.

Arlington may now obtain approximately $1,800,000 for housing units, under a new state law, and it will be up to the town meeting members to decide whether or not this financial help will be accepted.

It appeared this week that a major bone of contention at the meeting might well be where a housing development could be placed. Proponents of vets' housing, led by Chairman G. Bertram Washburn of the Veterans' Housing Committee, point out that the proposed construction would be of high standard, involving permanent rather than purely temporary construction.

Article 2 of the warrant for Monday's special meeting reads: "To see if the town will determine that a housing authority is needed in Arlington for the purpose of clearance of sub-standard, decadent areas, or the provision of housing for families of low income."

Collecting The Coins From Curb Meters

RESEMBLING A VACUUM CLEANER (or, if you prefer, a fire extinguisher on wheels) the portable collection box shown above is used to gather in the pennies and nickels deposited in Arlington's new parking meters. And, vacuum cleaner or not, it does a good job. Town Treasurer J. Wilbert Anderson looks on (at right) as Assistant Tax Collector William P. Dale who's in charge of the actual collection under Mr. Anderson's supervision, shows the Press photographer how it's done. Mr. Dale unlocks the coin box on the meter, and as he opens the box whatever coins are inside fall into the funnel, through the hose and into the locked container. After trundling around to each of the 300 meters—once a week—the "vacuum cleaner" is unlocked at the treasurer's office and the coins counted. The town keeps half the money, pays over the other half to the meter company until the purchase price of the meters has been met. (Dwight Davis Photo.)

Preparing To Level Peirce Buildings To Create Parking Lot

The Peirce and Winn, Co., coal dealers located 85 years at 12 Mystic Ave., was preparing this week to vacate the premises so that town officials may proceed immediately after June 30 to raze the buildings for a municipal parking lot.

Horace W. Peirce, of the company, told the Press Monday that his company would definitely be off the premises by the end of this month.

"We're all ready to move now, and may even be moved by the end of this week," he said.

The company will henceforth concentrate its activities at its branch at 10 Park Ave., where it has a railroad siding and—according to Mr. Peirce—will be "better off than we were on Mystic Ave."

The Mystic Ave., property, just off Mass. Ave., has been taken over by the township and Peirce and Winn were served a notice to vacate by June 30.

The selectmen, meanwhile, were preparing this week to solicit bids for demolition of the old buildings on the site. It was hoped that a contract might be placed by July 15, and that the site might be cleared within 30 days afterwards—or by August 15.

The job of having the site cleared is in the hands of the selectmen, but once that is done the board of public works will take over and prepare the ground for use as a free parking lot. If everything works smoothly, the lot may be ready for use this fall.

Local Man Inventor Of Improvement On Duplicating Machines

Washington, D. C.—(Special)—On June 1 the U. S. Patent Office granted patent number 2,442,574 on a "Clutch Control For Duplicating Machines" to Frederick W. Storck, of 167 Jason St., Arlington, Mass.

Duplicating machines of the type under consideration usually comprise a rotating platen or drum to which a master copy is secured; and the clear sheets, which are to receive the duplicated matter, are singularly positioned for feeding into engagement with the master copy. It should be noted that the former are moistened by conventional methods during the feeding operations.

In the use of these devices, it obviously is essential that the sheet-feeding elements and the actuating mechanism for the master-copy carrying member be properly co-related. In other words, after a sheet has been printed, the beginning of the following cycle must start at a fixed and definite point so that the next successively positioned clear sheet will be advanced to register properly with the master copy.

However, according to Mr. Storck, when motive power such as a continuously driven pulley, is employed to operate these machines, it becomes a problem to achieve the latter requirement. It is therefore the object of his invention to provide a solution thereafter, and in general, he accomplishes this end by means of a special clutch operating between the driving pulley and the driven member, that functions to instantly engage or disengage these two units. As a consequence, the printing element will always be stopped at the correct registering position upon completion of any number of continuous cycles of operation. The actual use of Mr. Storck's equipment is relatively simple, for the operator merely depresses a foot pedal to achieve the desired results.

This patent has been assigned to Standard Duplicating Machines Corporation, Everett, Mass.

Kiwanians In Softball Lead

As the first half of the Town Softball League nears its end, Kiwanis looms as the winner of the first half with the Bombers a very close second. Highlight of last week's games was the close contest between Kiwanis and the Elks who were in first place, Kiwanis winning 1-0. Ludka, star pitcher of the Elks, pitched no hit ball for six innings, but in the seventh inning a single followed by Reardon's triple spelled defeat for the Elks.

It was announced just as this issue was going to press that arrangements had been completed for a ball game made up of policemen to play a game with a firemen's team.

The tilt—which is expected to attract unusual interest and a large attendance—is scheduled for Spy Pond field, at 6 o'clock Saturday.

2 H. S. Girls Leave For Girls' State

Mary Elaine Pelletier of 34 Sunset Road and Shirley Weslowski of 11 Grove St., Place, both students in the Junior class of Arlington High School were chosen to represent Arlington Unit No. 39 American Legion Auxiliary at the 4th Massachusetts Girls' State now being held at State Teachers College, Bridgewater, June 18 to June 24.

Girls' State is a school of political science conducted by the American Legion Auxiliary as a part of its Americanism work. Experts in the field of government, leading officials of the Commonwealth, City and Town representatives and Court officials will visit the State during the week, and the Girl Staters who become members of a mythical 49th State, will learn not only how government operates, but will actually perform some of the duties of the offices of the Commonwealth, cities and towns.

Classes are interesting and inspirational. Recreation, music and sports complement the daily program. During the week, the Girl Staters hear and meet people of whom they have read—people prominent in the life of the nation. Mrs. Anna A. Buckley of Arlington, newly elected 2nd Dept. Vice president, also dept. rehabilitation chairman, is one of the counselors and has attended each of the three previous Girl State programs in this capacity.

Two Girls will be selected at Girls' State to attend Girls' Nation in Washington late in the summer, as guests of the National Legion Auxiliary.

The local post voted Tuesday to go ahead with the installation, some members voicing regret that a set could not have been on hand this week to listen in on the ring fight and the GOP convention. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a set.

that it will become a tradition for the club to advance to Troop 85 as they become of age.

The Troop is planning to get underway with an active program in the early fall.

Plan Better Bus Service For Children In Arlmont Village

The Arlington Heights Improvement Association has received a communication from the Hudson Bus Lines outlining a trial schedule of service for school children of the Arlmont Village and Ridge sections.

The new bus service will start on the opening day of school in the fall, and the first bus will leave the Village at 8:30 a. m. up the Appleton Street circuit taking in both the Locke School and the Brackett School. A return trip will be made at 12 noon. This will be followed by an afternoon trip starting at the Village at 1 p. m. and a final trip returning from the Brackett School via the Locke School at 3:30 p. m.

This new bus service is the result of the combined efforts of the Superintendent of School, Clifford Hall; School Principal Lawrence Mantyla; the residents of the Village and Ridge; and the firm backing given by the Arlington Heights Improvement Association which is represented at hearings by President James C. Dolye and Director George A. Harris. The School Committee was represented by Mrs. Eleanor J. Strong.

The Arlington Heights Improvement Association was instrumental in arranging meetings at which discussions of all parties led to the solution of the bus problem for the school children.

'Let's Have A Picnic' A Good Idea -- If The Food's Varied A Bit

"If you want the men-folk to greet the suggestion of a picnic enthusiastically, you must show some imagination in planning an outdoor meal," declares Mrs. Louisa P. Skilton, director of the Nutrition Service of the Boston Chapter of Red Cross.

Listing a few hints which will make "that man" eagerly second the idea of a picnic, she gives the following advice:

Always include at least one hot dish in the meal. Fish fries are an excellent idea and the men will enjoy showing off their culinary skill-giving mother a chance to sit back and relax-or prepare hamburger cakes at home. Wrap in waxed paper. Cook over the picnic fire.

Raw vegetables are a natural. Carrot strips will spice up a meal. If you have never tried roasted corn or potatoes, list these for one of your picnics. Wrap them in wet paper and roast in the coals.

Fresh fruits are welcomed by the family. Grapes, pears and fresh pineapples are excellent as dessert. The latter, by the way, can be cut in sections and eaten easily from the hand.

Don't forget to bring along at least one thermos of drinking water if there is no safe supply nearby. Simple beverages are best-milk or lemonade for children, and coffee for adults, carried in the thermos and cans of chilled fruit juice which can be wrapped with newspaper to keep cool.

Last, but not least, select your picnic spot with care, avoiding ant hills and undergrowth where the mosquitos may breed. The First Aid department of Red Cross recommends baking soda for insect bites, so tuck in a box when you start out for a gala day.

Scooping Around Arlington High

with KATHLEEN KIRSCHBAUM

Arlington High School closed for summer vacation Friday, June 18, and will reopen Wednesday, Wednesday, Sept. 8.

On Wednesday evening, June 16, a testimonial dinner was held at the Arlington Town Hall in honor of Mr. Gammons, who has been the principal at A. H. S. for the past 28 years. Joseph J. Bevins, school committee chairman, was the toastmaster, and led a fine program of music and tributes to the retiring leader of Arlington High.

Among the speakers was Mr. Arthur, A. H. S., teacher and chairman of the committee to which full credit goes for a successful program. After his marvelous speech honoring Mr. Gammons, he made him the presentation of a gold watch.

This testimonial was truly a gala affair from its beautiful arrays of flowers to a delicious roast beef dinner and well-planned program; everyone-present, and retired teachers and school committee representatives was happy to have attended each a memorable banquet.

Primary elections were held recently to determine final candidates for next year's class officers. Results are as follows: Allan Kenney and Robert Lennon, president; Howard Vlery and Grace Heaney, vice-president; Lois Hart and Marion Scott, secretary; John Doran and Paul Lally, treasurer. Final results will be determined by another election in the fall.

The last assembly of the school year and also the last at which Mr. Gammons will preside was held last Thursday in the George Lowe auditorium. At this time letter awards were made to sophomores and juniors for winter and spring sports, band, orchestra and G. A. A., and Mr. Gammons welcomed the year's principal and assistant principal, Mr. Morrill and Mr. Downs.

'Family Day' Mass Held At St. Agnes

Family Communion Sunday was observed at St. Agnes Church on Sunday when the Upper Church was set aside for families to receive Communion together at 8:30 Mass.

Children of all ages accompanied their parents, the entire church being filled with family groups. Msgr. Matthew J. Flaherty, the pastor, celebrated the mass and in his sermon commented on how inspiring it was to see so many families together. Speaking about Father's Day, he asked the children to remember their fathers every day of the year.

A special choir sang under direction of Miss Anne Connor, organist. Miss Eleanor Repetto sang "Agnus Dei" by Bizet; Louise Kelly, "The Lord's Prayer," and Joseph Coyne "Just For Today" and "Panis Angelicus." Other members of the choir were Therese Bradley, Marie Barbano Galpin, Virginia Mulhern, Joan and Elaine Ryan, Anne Mahoney, Jacqueline Mills and Frances Flatten.

The family mass, which was sponsored by the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine at St. Agnes, brought to a close the Society's
